Endowment for Health

Any public or private nonprofit organization whose proposal improves the health of New Hampshire citizens is able to apply. The Endowment for Health offers four different grant types:

- ◆ Theme Grants: these are multi-year grants to research, plan, and implement model solutions to critical health issues in New Hampshire.
- ◆ Applied Research Grants and Other Initiatives: these grants provide funds for applied research, data analysis, and other activities to address a critical gap in public policy and to better understand health issues in New Hampshire. Only applications solicited by an invitation from the Endowment are accepted for this grant type.
- ◆ Planning, Convening, and Technical Assistance Initiatives: this grant provides funds to support project planning, health-related symposia and conferences, and technical assistance to organizations.
- ◆ Discretionary Grants: this grant provides funding for short-term, health-related, urgent needs and opportunities.

Applicants must complete the proposal summary, proposal narrative, and attachments according to the application guidelines; submit one original and five printed copies of the proposal summary and the proposal narrative; submit three copies of the attachments. The application will be reviewed for a number of qualifications including:

- ◆ The proposal improves health in a broad sense (physical, mental and social well-being)
- ◆ The proposal improves health by addressing social, behavioral-lifestyle, and environmental factors, not just health care
- ◆ The proposal fosters prevention and wellness
- ◆ The proposal involves collaboration with other organizations, when possible
- ◆ Includes an evaluation plan along with a budget
- ◆ Provides a dissemination plan for findings
- ◆ Proposal has the potential to create systemic change

Fuller Foundation

The purpose of this foundation is to support nonprofit agencies that improve the quality of life for people, animals and the environment. They focus primarily on the Boston area and the seacoast area of New Hampshire. Their grants are meant to effect change, make an impact on the community, and inspire good deeds. Guidelines include:

- ◆ No capital projects will be considered unless, in the opinion of the Trustees, the Foundation gift will have a significant impact

- ◆ Proposals for these grants must follow all current application procedures
- ◆ Any grant submitted that is incomplete will not be considered
- ◆ The Fuller Foundation does not award grants to individuals
- ◆ Faxed grant request will not be accepted

The Fuller Foundation also sponsors a "Youth at Risk" grant that supports agencies and programs that "challenge and empower youth at risk through peer leadership, outdoor adventure education programs, and alternative education experiences. The Foundation favors programs that are year-round, or summer programs which re-enforce values and skills that are learned during the school year."

Grant submissions must include:

- ◆ A brief history of the organization's origins and its current programs
- ◆ A copy of the IRS letter of Tax Exempt Status 501(c)3
- ◆ A narrative which describes the goals and objectives of the program/project; how it will measure success; the evaluation process; and how the funding of the program/project will change existing conditions and benefit the constituency it serves
- ◆ A list of Board of Directors
- ◆ Board approved budgets (both operational and project budget, including the percentage of the project budget that is being requested in this proposal
- ◆ List of grants from other foundations or corporations and specifying the dollar amounts committed, pending, or requested for the project
- ◆ Year-to-date financial statement for the current fiscal year
- ◆ Independent audit report (if required by law) or an accounts review

Submission deadlines are January 15 and June 15.

Jessie B. Cox Charitable Trust

This Trust provides grants that will address important social issues. It also strives to increase the ability of nonprofit organizations to carry out their missions. The average grant is about $35,000, although grants generally range from $25,000 to $75,000. They do not consider requests for less than $20,000. The Trust is also interested in helping with collaborations among New England nonprofit organizations and welcomes collaborative concept papers. They sometimes consider operating support to assist applicants to achieve their long-range organizational goals. These may include growth in current service or advocacy programs, development of a new field of service, or the adaptation or expansion of current programs to reach a new geographic area or to serve a new client base. Preference will be given to organizations with an annual budget under $ 1 million.

The fields of interest for which grants will be given include health, to assist in improving the level of health in New England; education, to enhance educational opportunities and achievement in New England; the environment, the protect and enhance the natural and urban environment, and to conserve New England's natural resources; and philanthropy, to increase philanthropy in New England.

The application process should begin with a telephone call to staff of the Donor Services Office at Hemenway & Barnes to discuss a proposed project. Concept papers should be no more than 3 to 4 pages and should include a brief background statement about the applicant organization and its purpose, a description of how the proposed project will strengthen the ability of the organization to reach its own goals, an outline of the specific project, and the amount requested. A preliminary budget and proof of 501(c)3 status should be attached. Papers must be received by January 15, April 15, July 15, or October 15.

New Hampshire Charitable Foundation

NHCF offers two grant programs awarding money to NH nonprofit organizations. The first, the Project Grants Program, grants up to $5,000 to address emerging opportunities, launch creative programs, or cover costs of one-time projects. It also supports:

- ◆ Needs assessments and feasibility studies
- ◆ Program planning and development
- ◆ Pilot projects and idea testing
- ◆ Events and one-time programs
- ◆ Organizational development, technical assistance and capacity building (board/staff retreats, strategic planning) also marketing and web page development
- ◆ Small equipment to support key programs
- ◆ Communication and outreach projects
- ◆ Lobbying or advocacy activities

The Project Grants Program has several limitations. Requests exceeding $5,000 will not be considered; multi-year grants are not available; events or activities that have already occurred will not be funded; and an organization can only present one application for each deadline.

The second program, the Strategic Focus Grants Program, grants up to $15,000 at most of the regional divisions and $20,000 at NHCF and the Greater Piscataqua Community Foundation. This grant focuses on strategic initiatives and long-term activities and programs that make important improvements to services. It supports programs and projects such as:

- ◆ Start-up of new programs or expansion of existing programs
- ◆ Initial staff expansion for organizational growth
- ◆ Collaborative projects to add complex, regional needs (must be related to community or organization need – ex. Family law lobbyist)
- ◆ Lobbying or advocacy activities
- ◆ Multi-year grants may be considered through this program only. A detailed multi-year budget must be included.

The Strategic Focus Grants Program also has several limitations. Requests exceeding $15,000 or $20,000 will not be considered; events or activities that have already occurred will not be funded; and an organization can only present one application for each deadline.

Statewide programs apply directly with the NHCF. If the application is not accepted, NHCF will contact the director to offer technical assistance on how to strengthen the grant for the next year. They are looking for grants that help develop strong nonprofit institutions, build social capital, improve nonprofit management and governance, and increase economic opportunity.

Norwin S. and Elizabeth N. Bean Foundation

This foundation is affiliated with the NH Charitable Foundation. The NHCF receives and reviews the grant applications, arrange meetings, and maintain correspondence for the Bean Foundation. Nonprofit organizations serving the communities of Manchester and Amherst are available for the grant, although applications from other areas will be considered as well. This foundation supports organizations focused on humanities, education, environment, healthcare, human services, and public benefit. Applicants who receive funding typically:

- ◆ Extend important services to individuals and groups not served through other programs
- ◆ Develop services or programs that can be sustained by generating revenue and attracting contributed income
- ◆ Prepare for change by assessing and meeting emerging community needs
- ◆ Promote cooperation and resource sharing among community groups
- ◆ Improve the financial stability and managerial skills of the applicant organization
- ◆ Test new approaches to problems or adapt solutions that have been successful elsewhere

A complete application includes:

- ◆ An application cover sheet
- ◆ Proposal narrative
- ◆ Brief summary of the organization's history along with program goals and services
- ◆ Specific description of the method used to determine needs and information about the individuals or groups that the proposed program will serve
- ◆ Detailed description of the activities for which support is requested (including a clear statement of objectives, time line, work plan, and qualifications of staff and volunteers)
- ◆ Evaluation plan
- ◆ Description of cooperative relationships with other organizations working in the same area with the same population

- ◆ Financial resources available to operate the program during the grant period and in the future
- ◆ Itemized income and expense budget for the proposed program indicating known and projected sources of financial support
- ◆ Latest available financial statement (preferably audited) and current year's operating budget for the organization
- ◆ List of applicant organizations' board of directors with their professional affiliations
- ◆ Applicant organizations' IRS tax exempt letter or letter of agreement from a fiscal agent
- ◆ Additional attachments (newsletter, brochure, annual report, press clippings) may be included

Deadlines for applying are December 1, April 1, and September 1.

The New Hampshire Commission on the Status of Women Evaluation

Dollars for Change
Funding Resources for Nonprofit Organizations

Under the Commission on the Status of Women's legislative mandate, RSA 19-B, the duties of the Commission are designed to enhance opportunities and make positive changes for women in New Hampshire.

The Commission has recently created a resource directory for nonprofit organizations in the state of New Hampshire. It contains grant listings for 501(c)3 organizations that work towards a better society for all.

In an effort to produce the most comprehensive publications possible, we ask that you take a few minutes to fill out the evaluation below. The Commission is dedicated to improving the lives of women and girls throughout the state and we would very much appreciate your response. Your input is vital.

Our goal was to create an easy-to-use resource directory for New Hampshire nonprofit organizations that is understandable, accessible, and shared. Upon first review, how would you rate the directory's:

	Excellent	Very Good	Good	Fair	Poor
Format	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Organization	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Clarity of content	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

How useful did you find this resource directory?

Very useful Useful Somewhat useful Not useful Don't know

How and with whom did you use this resource directory?

Are there any specific instances of impact as a result of this resource directory?(Such as receiving a grant)

Any additional information you can provide that would help us to better meet your needs is greatly appreciated. Please let us know what about the resource directory is most helpful, least helpful, and any recommendations for change.

Please return completed survey to: NHCSW: State House Annex Rm.414, Concord NH 03301
